

SCHOOL NOTES.

The children are enjoying the beautiful snow.

The pupils of the Primary Dept have recently contributed several pretty calendars and pictures, and the room has been further decorated by bouquets of holly and a palm.

The Primary Dept. will unite with the Intermediate Dept. on the afternoon of Feb. 11, for the commemoration of Lincoln's birthday, and appropriate exercises will be held in the Primary Dept. on Friday, Feb. 21, in commemoration of Washington's birthday.

Elsie Klovstad contributed a very beautiful bouquet of primroses and asperagas on Thursday of last week greatly to the enjoyment of the Primary Dept.

Blanch Van Dusen and Frances Taplin have returned to school after an absence of several days.

Carver Wamberg and Johnny Carpenter have loaned some large flags for the marching exercises in the Lincoln program.

Mrs. Mary E. Slingsby, of Riverside made a brief visit to the Primary Dept. a few days ago.

Hettie Amsdell has returned to school after a few days absence on account of a severe cold.

Yesterday was Lincoln's birthday and the schools celebrated by taking a holiday.

The following pupils in Miss Curtiss' room were neither absent nor tardy during the month of January.

Ray Nelson, Willie Jacobson, Alfred Wood, Elsie Luce, Belle Carleton, Clarence Bogart, Zella Jacobson, Clara McLean, Grace Smith, Zelma Erdman and Arthur McLaughlin.

Hazel Dingle was absent on Tuesday last on account of illness.

Paul Curfman returned to school Monday.

Porter Rugg has been absent from school this week on account of illness.

Laurence Parkins is absent this week.

The Intermediate room pupils have begun a course in drawing.

Royce Graham leaves school today, as his parents intend making their home in Hillsboro.

The Primary and Intermediate rooms observed Lincoln's birthday together; giving the program in the Intermediate room. They presented "Little memories of long and long ago," and also gave "The Unveiling of Lincoln's Picture."

Mr. McPherson visited at Mr. Joslyn's from Friday eve. until Saturday noon of last week.
