

WEDDING BELLS.

The nuptials of Miss Agatha Vadnie, daughter of Mr. Louis Vadnie, and Mr. John Crievier, were solemnized Tuesday evening, December first, at the home of the bride's father. The bride's sister, Miss Eugenie Vadnie, acted as bridesmaid, and Mr. Arthur Thomas as best man. Rev. H. Gilpatrick read the marriage lines. The bride was charmingly gowned in blue silk, with trimmings of white silk medalious. After the service a bountiful supper was spread to some fifty guests, the tables being tastefully decorated with flowers, after which a pleasant evening was spent by all. The bride and groom are well known here and all join in wishing them a long and happy wedded life. Among the many beautiful presents were the following :—Mr. John Crievier, rocking chair ; Louis Vadnie and family, set dining room chairs ; Dolphus Vadnie and wife, carving set ; Mrs. Long, five dollars ; Frank Vadnie, rug ; Harry and Johnnie Vadnie, pepper and salt set ; Annie Weyflin, silver bread tray ; Henry Olinger, water set ; David Wilcox, silver tea set ; Arthur Thomas, mantel clock ; Edward Schultz, berry set ; John Williams, fruit dish ; Mrs. Palmer, tea set ; Hugo Gunkel and wife, silver knives, forks and spoons ; I.
