

At an election held at Finley last week the question of incorporation carried by a vote of 25 to 6. As incorporated the village takes in four sections and gets the taxes on two miles of railroad.