

The Hope Cornet Band is being revived and will be in shape to furnish music for the races. Arrangements have been made to secure the services of a first-class teacher, who will arrive in a few days. We have the material for a fine band and after a few weeks practice will be able to furnish some good music. There will be seventeen members. The band is open for engagements.

---