

Theodore Klabo, living a few miles northeast of town, was quite seriously hurt one day last week. While engaged in cleaning the barn his team started while Mr. Klabo was on top of the load, Mr. Klabo's head on the door and cutting his head and face severely. Dr. Poole dressed his wounds and Mr. Klabo is doing nicely.

---