

Young Schultz, a brother of Ed, was badly mangled by a broncho last Friday. The animal let loose with his front feet and pawed his face terribly. Dr. Phillip patched him up and at last account he swears all kinds of vengeance on all broncho houses—broken or unbroken.