

The presence of the telephone crew in town the last week and the work they have done at Colgate promises a speedy completion of the new line to Casselton.