

The work of setting poles on the Goose Lake telephone line is completed with the exception of through one slough; as soon as it dries up the remaining poles will be set and the wire strung. The line extends as far out as A. B. Danforth's and Geo. L. Smith's and should be a great convenience to the people along the route.