

DIED:—At the home of William Aldrich in this city, on Monday, Mar. 18th, at 10:45 p. m. Mrs. Julia E. Drakely, at the advanced age of 80 years, 8 months and 25 days. Deceased was born on June 23d, 1820 in the state of Ohio, where the early years of her life were spent. In 1841 she was married to William Drakely and about a year after their marriage they removed to Dane county, Wisconsin, and were among the early pioneers of that country. There were born to her three children, two of whom with her husband have gone before to that better land.

She was long a member of the Unitarian church, and has always lived an earnest and devoted Christian life.

In September 1899, she removed to North Dakota and has spent much of the time while here at the home of her nephew, Mr. Aldrich, to whom in earlier years she gave a mother's care. She has been quite feeble during the past few months and her death which was due to old age, did not come unexpectedly.

Funeral services were held here yesterday afternoon at 1:30, at the Aldrich home, and were conducted by Rev. P. A. Scott. The remains were then taken to the train to be sent to Cottage Grove Cemetery, eight miles east of Madison, Wisconsin, where her husband and two children repose. William Aldrich accompanied the body to its destination. The bereaved son and relatives have the entire sympathy of this community in their sad affliction.
