

PIONEER GONE.

MRS. FULLER, ONE OF
THE OLD SETTLERS,
PASSES AWAY.

Mrs. S. C. Fuller, one of Steele County's oldest and most highly respected citizens, passed peacefully and quietly away last Friday afternoon after an illness of about three months. After returning last spring from a visit to relatives and friends in the east Mrs. Fuller complained of feeling unwell and gradually grew worse. Medical assistance was called but no relief was effected. A consultation was held and the trouble diagnosed as cancer of the liver. Everything possible was done to stay the dread disease but without avail and Friday afternoon the soul left the troubled body and returned to rest with its Maker.

Mrs. Fuller, the daughter of Olney and Lydia Randall, was born in Jefferson county, N. Y. Nov. 2nd, 1840. She was married to Sidney C. Fuller July 1st 1864 and they moved to Bloomington, Ill. in 1866 where they made their home until the spring of 1883 when they came to Steele county where they have since made their home. Mrs Fuller leaves a husband, seven children, a father, two brothers, and two sisters and a host of friends to mourn her early demise. She was a genuinely good, conscientious Christian woman. Kind, sympathetic, first in all acts of kindness or charity she was loved and respected by all who knew her.

The funeral was held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence. The casket was beautifully decorated with flowers which were sent by loving neighbors and friends. The music was furnished by the male quartette from the Hope M.E. church and the funeral service was conducted by Rev. D. I. Roush. The remains were laid to rest in the Hope cemetery and were escorted to their last resting place by the largest procession in the history of this locality. The bereaved relatives have the sympathy of all in their loss.
