

PASSED BEYOND.

It becomes the sad duty of the Pioneer this week to announce the death of one of Colgate's most highly respected citizens, Mrs. Joe Gray, which occurred at her home near Colgate, last Sunday evening, at the ripe old age of seventy-six years. The deceased was one of the pioneers of Steele county, having come here in the early '20s and was a general favorite with her large circle of friends and neighbors. She leaves an aged husband and a number of children, who are left behind to mourn the loss of a devoted wife and loving mother.

The funeral services were held in the hall at Colgate Tuesday afternoon, and the building was filled with neighbors and friends, who assembled to pay respect to this noble lady. The remains were buried in the Page Cemetery. Rev. Dingle of the M. E. church of this place conducted the services. The Pioneer joins the large circle of friends and neighbors in extending sympathy to the bereaved husband and relatives.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank the kind friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted us during the recent illness and death of our beloved wife and mother. Your kindness will never be forgotten.

JOE GRAY AND FAMILY,
