

The Pioneer is again designated by the board of county commissioners, one of the official papers of Steele county for 1900, for which the board has our thanks. The Tribune and Slope are the other two.