

School Notes.

The Baccalaureate address will be delivered in the City Opera House, Sunday evening, May 27, by Dr. A. J. Ladd, Professor of Education of the State University. The following is a statement from President Merrifield's letter concerning the man: "I am sure that you will be pleased with Dr. Ladd both as a man and as a speaker. He has had long experience as a college professor in one of the Michigan colleges, and last year took his degree of Doctor of Philosophy at the University of Michigan." This will be a union service in which both pastors will take part. The general public is cordially invited. 8:30 P. M.

The Commencement Exercises of the Hope State High School will be held in the City Opera House, Friday evening, June 1, 1906. This is a strong and promising class and one of which any institution can be proud. Three members of this class, namely, Edna Gray, Kate Carleton and Emma Slingsby will teach school the ensuing year, John Baldwin will enter the State University, taking up his regular college course, and Jessie White and Florence Link will enter some higher institution of learning. The commencement address will be delivered by Prof. Jno. Gillette of Valley City State Normal.

The Grade Entertainment will occur Monday evening, May 28, in the City Opera House, under the management of Misses Gilmore, Larson, Little, Carpenter and Odney. This program will be entertaining and instructive. The program of all these exercises occurs in this issue.

The Eight Grade Promotional Exercises will be given Tuesday evening May 29, 1906, in the opera house. There are eleven members in this class and will greatly increase the high school next year.

There will be given the senior class a public reception, May 31, 1906, in the high school auditorium to which the general public is invited. This reception will be given under the auspices of the high school proper.
