

School Notes.

The library is now open for the distribution of books.

The complete works of Edgar Allen Poe have been added to our library.

Janitor Amos succeeds admirably in keeping us warm these cool days.

High school examinations for the first semester are being held this week.

Astronomy and Geology will be taken up next week by those students who finish the first semester subjects.

Mr. Lou Finn has finished the benches for the physical culture classes. The dumb bell and indian club racks are also his work.

Educational Foundations, The School Board Journal and The Literary Digest are now on file in our library for the benefit of both teachers and students.

We are pleased to announce that Mr. W. I. Nolan, the humorist, whose lecture here had to be postponed on account of his illness, will be with us on Feb. 3, Friday, and lecture at the opera house for the benefit of the high school.

The following had perfect spelling lessons for the week ending Jan. 20:

FIRST GRADE

Jamie Iseminger,
Doris Tillotson,
Zelma Moores,
William Hanley,
Willow Baker,
Frances Lockwood.

SECOND GRADE

Ralph Klovstad,
Leslie Moote,
Alice Joslyn,
Sibyl Wamberg.

THIRD GRADE

Alice Carpenter,
Helen Baker,
Floyd Reynolds,
Blanche Warner,
Nevene Couron.

Miss Isabel Nybo visited the second grade last Thursday.

Miss Florence Linke has returned to school after an absence of three weeks.