

PEPPER-BECKERJECK.

The following received in to-day's mail explains itself:

J.A. Pepper, Edith E. Beckerjeck, married Tuesday, July nineteenth, nineteen hundred four, Portage, Wisconsin. At home after August tenth, Hope, North Dakota.

The groom is well known here, having moved here in the early days and grown up with the country, and being one of the publishers of the Pioneer. The bride is also well known here, having made her home with her sister, Mrs. Hanley, for several years. She is an accomplished young lady, and is very popular with all her acquaintances.

The congratulations and best wishes of their many friends here will be extended heartily and liberally upon their return.
