

From Colgate Cor. Page Record:

Last Sunday at 2 p. m. occurred the marriage of Miss Carrie Marie Erlandson and Charles Austin Wiswell, at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. J. O. Dahl. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Waller of this place. The wedding was a quiet event as none but the relatives and the most intimate friends of the bride and groom are invited. The bride was tastefully dressed in blue silk, wearing a white silk veil and a wreath of flowers. The groom was attired in black coat and pants with white vest. The bridesmaid was Miss Matilda E. Erlandson, a sister of the bride and John Erlandson a brother of the bride was best man. After congratulations an elegant repast was served, covers being laid for twentyfive. The decorations were pink and white. Their many friends wish them success and prosperity in their future life.
