THE FARMERS' INSTITUTE AT HOPE ON FEBRUARY 26th PROMISES TO BE A DRAWING CARD.

It may be that some of our readers have not noticed or perhaps overlooked the announcement made in this paper in regard to the farmers' institute which will be held here a week from tomorrow, Friday, Feby. 26th. There will be a forenoon, afternoon and evening session. Prominent speakers, who are practical farmers, will be present and talk on topics interesting to every farmer in Steele county. Below we give a list of the speakers and their topics:

M. F. Greeley, "Poultry" and "Economical Meat Production", and at the evening session will address the audience on the subject, "Landed Home."

E. S. DeLaucey, of Valley City, "Draft Horse, his Breeding, Care and Management".

A. K. Bush, "Potato Growing", "Forage Crops", "Hog Raising" and "Tree Culture".

Thomas Convey, "Farmer's Cow, her Breeding, Care and Management" also the "Building and Ventilation of Barns", "Care of Milk and Cream, etc."

E. G. Schollande, of the Agricultural college, is an expert along the line of seed grain selection and this will be his particular topic at the institute. However he will call attention to some methods of cultivation, rotation of crops; etc., as carried on at the experiment station.

Everyone is invited to attend these meetings. The ladies are especially invited to attend and take an active part. Don't fail to be present at the first session and get a Farmer's Institute Annual for 1903.
