

Lonny Mann, a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Washburn, was taken suddenly ill Monday evening with symptoms of spinal meningitis. For a time during the evening his life was despaired of but the following day brought an improvement which has continued. The parents of the young man have been visiting here and had arranged to leave on Monday evening but the sudden illness of their son caused them to change their plans for the present.

---