

A telegram was received yesterday afternoon announcing the serious condition of Dannie Murray, who has recently undergone an operation for appendicitis. His father, Mr. John Murray, secured an automobile and started for Buffalo immediately after the sad news reached him, where he caught the early train to St. Paul.