

Serious Accident

On Saturday last, while returning from a drive in the country, Messrs. Pat. Sullivan and John Murray experienced quite a serious accident which may result fatally for the latter.

A defective neckyoke allowed the buggy tongue to drop to the ground just as they were descending the hill at the Ingison farm. They succeeded in passing over the bridge with the horses on a wild run but as they ascended the hill the pole stuck into the ground and both men were thrown out. Mr. Murray was the more seriously hurt, three ribs being broken and more or less bruised. His condition was so serious last evening that his friends were very much alarmed. A special train arrived at 6:30 P. M. from Fargo bringing Rev. Fr. Lemiaux and niece, Mrs. Laura Ruthruff. His sons, Chas. and Wm. came on the night train.

At present writing he is resting a little easier.
