

Twenty Years Ago.

Wheat 50 cents.

Nice sweet cider at Wasem's.

A public well is badly needed in Hope.

There was a pretty thick ice this morning.

George Luce stirred up things over at Cooperstown Monday.

The death of Rev. O. P. Miller occurred Sunday, Sept. 19th.

Frank Gilmore's new house is well under way. Bistline is the builder.

Frank Hill left on Tuesday for Kilbourn City and may possibly return in a couple of weeks.

The lumber for the new elevator has arrived and work has commenced on the building and will be pushed rapidly forward.

J. O. Smith, who lives in Newburgh twp., threshed 316 acres of wheat this fall on which the average was 36 bushels to the acre.

J. A. White and family expect to move into town shortly and will occupy the building at present occupied by Mrs. Hogue.

A. F. Warner got 31 bushels of wheat to the acre off 65 acres and L. C. Day got 24 bushels per acre from about the same number of acres.

The Hope delegation to the county convention was Howard McGovney, Harry Baker, Wilbur Wood, Ben B. Whitney, Thomas Sussex, J. P. Worth and Jas. Loney.

It is reported the Manitoba engineers have found a point for crossing the Sheyenne at or near Mardell, and they are now engaged in running the line from the river to Hope by way of Pickert.