

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Jensen died last Thursday morning of a complication of diseases. The little one was about one month old and had been sickly since its birth. The funeral was conducted Monday, Rev. Longhaug officiating. The parents have the sympathy of their friends in their bereavement.