

Word was received here Tuesday by phone, from Fargo, announcing the death of Mr. A. K. Mesick, which occurred at a hospital in that city on Monday night. Mr. Mesick has been ailing for the past year and a couple of weeks ago was taken to Fargo for treatment. He leaves a wife and a number of small children to mourn his demise. We did not learn the details of the disposition of the remains.