

John Oldfield Dead.

John Oldfield, a traveling agent for the Roach Candy Co. of St. Paul, died early Sunday morning at St. John's hospital after a short illness of pneumonia. Mr. Oldfield made his headquarters in Fargo. He was a member of the U. C. T. and the Elks. C. A. Roach of the company arrived in the city yesterday to look after the funeral arrangements and Wasem & Gaard took charge of the body and shipped it to Dunnville, Ont., last evening where a brother resides.—Fargo Call.
