

The eldest daughter of F. B. Olson, living about eight miles northeast of Sharon, is very ill with Diphtheria. The girl was sick about five days before a physician was called, then Dr. Peterson of Northwood was summoned and pronounced the trouble diphtheria. It is feared that a great many have been exposed to the disease, because it was not thought that it was anything serious until the Dr. came. The family are now under quarantine.