
Number Three

Tuesday morning John Rogers was instantly killed at the Absaraka gravel pit by being run over by the gravel train.

The man was literally cut to pieces. It is supposed that he slipped while attempting to board the train and fell under the wheels.

This is the third man killed this spring on this branch.
