

A telegram was received Monday evening by Chas. Simpson announcing the sad news of the death of his brother George's wife in New Mexico, where they had gone for the benefit of Mrs. Simpson's health. The news came as a shock to friends here. The body will be brought to Sharon for interment. The sorrowing relatives have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement.