

On Friday of last week Ethel Zeiss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Freeland, passed away after an illness of about ten days. Mrs. Zeiss came here with her parents about three years ago and has been a resident ever since. During the present year she has resided on her farm about five miles south, where she was taken ill. Everything possible was done to aid the sufferer but without avail. On Sunday the funeral took place from the town residence of her parents to the Weyburn cemetery and was one of the largest ever seen in the town, testifying to the sympathy the people have with the parents in their sad affliction.—Weyburn Herald. [Mr. and Mrs. Freeland have the sympathy of their many friends in this locality in their bereavement.
