THE OLD SILVER DOLLAR

How dear to my heart is the old silver dollar, when some kind subscriber presents it to view—the liberty head without necktie or collar, and all the strange things which to us seem so new; the wide spreading eagle, the arrows below it, the stars and the words with the strange things they tell. The coin of my fathers! We're glad that we know it, for some time or other 'twill come in right well—the spread eagle dollar, the star spangled dollar, the old silver dollar we all love so well.—Masonic Journal.

"SUPERIOR METHODS"

After being a student of another business college for six months, I entered Aakers Business College, Fargo, N. D., which I find uses superior methods, more practical helps and is better equipped. I have had a good chance to make comparisons, and they are decidedly in favor of the A. B. C. It gives me great pleasure to recommend Aaker's Business College for rapid progress and satisfactory work. Respectfully
