

Beckerjeck-Law

The marriage of Miss Cora Maud Law to Mr. Chas. F. Beckerjeck took place in Fargo, Wednesday, Feb. 26th. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Law of this place. She is a young lady of admirable qualities and accomplishments. A successful Cavalier county teacher and an expert stenographer she has won distinction along these lines. In addition few young ladies have shown a greater devotion to Sunday School work. Her willing co-operation in educational and social matters has endeared her to a large circle of friends.

The groom is a rising young merchant who has had charge of the store recently occupied by W. J. Faris. For five years he and his brother have carried on a successful business in Hope, N. D. He is now about to open out a general store at Casselton, N. D., where the couple will make their home.

After a short wedding tour they reached Hannah on Monday amid the usual congratulations and showers of rice. The Hannah band spoke their compliments by serenading the newly married couple. Many valuable presents show something of the high esteem in which they are held. On their departure tomorrow for their new home they leave behind a large circle of friends to wish them prosperity and happiness.—The Hannah Moon.
