

BROWN-MOTT.

Married at the bride's sister, Mrs. W. H. Northrop, at 8 p. m., Wednesday, July 15, Miss M. Louise Mott to Rev. R. Stanley Brown.

Miss Mott is from Glens Falls, N. Y., but has been living with her sister for several years. Mr. Brown is now located as pastor of the Presbyterian church at Sharon.

Rev. W. H. Hunter, Fargo, tied the knot. Only the relatives and intimate friends were invited. Miss Ruth Johnson, of Colgate, acted as bridesmaid and Mr. L. Gilmore was best man.

After the ceremony was over the doors were thrown open into the dining room, where two long tables beautifully decorated awaited the guests.

During the dinner hour the numerous toasts given, with Rev. John Neil Robertson as toast master, called forth the wit and good humor of the company.

The entertainment after dinner consisted of both vocal and instrumental music and social intercourse.

There were numerous presents both beautiful and useful, consisting of all kinds of silverware, cut glass, linen and useful articles.

The young couple took the train this morning for Lyner, where they will visit the groom's people for two weeks, after which they will be at home at Sharon.

Mrs. W. H. Hunter, Fargo, and Miss McCless, Sheldon, who were guests, accompanied them as far as Fargo.
