

At The Altar.

Yesterday afternoon at three o'clock the home of Louis Gunkel, who lives east of this city, was the scene of a pretty wedding when Rhinhart Gunkel and Miss Alice Lambert were united in marriage. Rev. Hitchcock, of the Congregational church, officiating. About forty guests witnessed the ceremony, joined in congratulations, assisted in the merry-making and partook of the bounteous repast.

About April first Mr. and Mrs. Gunkel expect to depart for the southern part of the state where the groom has filed on a homestead which he expects to make his future home.

The Pioneer joins their many friends in extending congratulations.
