

WEDDING BELLS.

PARKMAN-CHALMERS.

On Saturday last at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Chalmers, in this city, occurred the marriage of their only daughter, Cora Jane to Mr. James Parkman. Rev. Wallace, of the Methodist church, spoke the words which united these two hearts for the remainder of life's journey.

The bride is one of our choicest young ladies. From a little girl she has grown up in our midst, honored by old and young alike. The groom is a young man of good habits and a fine moral character and well liked by all who know him.

The happy couple will immediately take up their abode on the Chalmers homestead near Sherbrooke, where Mr. Parkman will engage in farming.

Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom were escorted to the depot by a host of friends, amidst a shower of rice, old shoes and best wishes, where they took the train for a short wedding trip.

Hope friends, together with friends from all over the country, join in wishing these popular young people a pleasant journey thru life.
