

Peterson-Nybo

(From Griggs County Sentinel.)

The marriage of Mr. Joe C. M. Peterson to Miss Isabelle Nybo took place on Wednesday, July 17, 1907, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Brita Nybo, seven miles west of Hope, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. Rev. Henrik Voldal of Cooperstown read the ceremony.

The ceremony was followed by a splendid dinner and the guests passed the evening in social conversation and with music and songs.

The contracting parties are both young people who have been reared in that neighborhood. Mr. Peterson is a prosperous farmer and thresher. He has a nice farm of a half section and is just completing a new set of buildings and they will be at home in the new house in a short time. Miss Nybo is well known in the southern part of this county and at Cooperstown, having taught school in this county for several years. Their friends look upon their union with much satisfaction and predict and wish for them a long and prosperous life.

They received many useful gifts as tokens of the esteem in which they are held.

Mr. and Mrs. Peterson left on Thursday for Minnesota to spend a week or two at the lakes and with relatives.
