

Zimkoski-Davis

An event, of course interesting to friends, but interesting to the utmost to the contracting parties, took place at the home of Dr. D. C. Davis, on Wednesday last, when Anthony Zimkoski, the competent telegraph operator at the Great Northern depot, was joined in holy matrimony to Rose May Davis, who for many months past has been one of the busiest bees of the "Bee Hive." The bride was supported by Mynda Johnson, while H. O. Skattebol played the part of best man admirably. After the ceremony—which was performed by Rev. W. C. Hutcheson—a splendid repast was partaken of and amid jest and jollity, fine fruit and fragrant flowers, the young couple started on the larger journey of life.—Casselton Reporter.
