

The little two year old child of Mr. and Mrs. John McCullough passed away yesterday afternoon, after an illness of two weeks. The little one's life has been hanging in a balance for the past week and all that loving hands could do was done. The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3:00 o'clock at the Congregational church.