

A very pretty church wedding took place in the Hauges Lutheran church in Ada, Minn., a week ago last night, when Rev. E. T. Silness of this city was married to Miss Regina Dyrud, of Ada. The church was profusely decorated for the occasion and as the wedding march was played on the organ the bridal party entered the church. The bridesmaids were Misses Lena and Ella Dyrud, sisters of the bride and the groomsmen were Anton Dyrud and M. Nelson from Ashland, Wis., a brother of the groom. Rev. J. Krozstad, pastor of the church made a brief address and read the marriage service from the Lutheran altar book. After the ceremony the bridal party and the guests went to the home of the bride's parents where congratulations were extended and a bounteous supper was prepared. The evening was spent in conversation and singing by the local church choir. Brief addresses were also made by the Revs. Krozstad and T. H. Larson. Many handsome gifts were received from friends. The happy couple arrived home last Tuesday and will go to housekeeping in the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Hansen.
