

On Tuesday, Nov. 26, 1907 occurred the marriage of Mr. Chas. Goff to Miss Katie Stahl, at the home of the bride's parents. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stahl, residing twelve miles north of here. The groom is one of Cooperstown's prosperous young business men. Both of the young people are well and favorably known to the people of Binford, who join the Times in wishing them a long and happy wedded life.—Binford Times.

It gives the Courier great pleasure to offer its sincere congratulations to Mr. Goff and his bride and hope that their wedded life will be one continuous round of happiness and prosperity. Charley has built a new home for himself on the east side of town and when it is completed he and his bride will settle down to housekeeping.
