

WEDDING BELLS

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Lars Johnson, of Sverdrup Township, was the scene of a delightfully pretty wedding on Thanksgiving day when their daughter, Miss Margaret, became the bride of Samson H. Sampson, of Pingree, N. Dak., formerly of Chicago, Rev. Josephson pronouncing the nuptial vows.

About seventy guests witnessed the spoken vows which were blessed under an arch of ferns erected in the parlor, where roses and foliage afforded the setting throughout the room.

A sumptuous dinner was served at the close of the ceremony which took place at high noon. In the dining room was a large bowl of white and pink carnations at the center of the table. Over this hung a large wedding bell from which streamers of white ribbon were suspended. Baskets of fruit also adorned this room.

The bride looked beautiful in her wedding attire. Her gown was of white silk crepe de chine elaborate with trimmings of embroidered silk chiffon, bands of insertion and silk ribbon. Her only ornament was a gold bracelet a gift of the groom. She held a large bouquet of bride's roses and lillies of the valley. The bridesmaids, Christine and Mathilda, sisters of the bride, wore cream colored silk mull and carried large bouquets of pink roses.

The groom wore the conventional black and was attended by Hans Seldahl and Albert Johnson.

Many costly and useful gifts were bestowed upon the happy couple. Among the out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Olof Johnson, Mose; Mr. and Mrs. N. Johnston, Aneta; Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Johnson, Hope; Mr. John Erickson, Jessie; Miss Hygina Johnson, Bismarck; Miss Olga Maasjo, Fingal; Mrs. Olaus Nelson, Atwater, Minn., and Mr. John Norman, of Minneapolis. The newly wedded couple left on Saturday for a trip to Chicago and other eastern points. They will be at home at Pingree, N.D., after Jan. 1. The bride is one of the highly esteemed young ladies of the vicinity while the groom is a popular gentleman of Pingree where he has made his home the last three years. They both have a large circle of friends who wish them every joy and happiness of wedded life.
