

BERGREN-HAUGEN.

A very pretty wedding was celebrated last Saturday at the home of John J. Haugen. Miss Anna Haugen was married to Chas. G. Bergren of Lake Park, Minn.

The ceremony took place at 10 o'clock in the Union church. Rev. Henrik Voldal of Cooperstown pronounced the words which made these young people husband and wife.

The bridesmaids were Miss Mary Haugen, sister of the bride, and Miss Olga Bergren, a sister of the groom. Miss Josie Bergren was the maid of honor. The best men were Julius and Ivar Haugen. Miss Alma Bergren presided at the organ and played the wedding march. The bride wore a beautiful turquoise colored gown; the groom wore the conventional black.

After the ceremony the happy couple, accompanied by a large number of friends, was taken to the home of the bride's parents where an excellent wedding dinner was served. The afternoon and evening was spent in feasting and merrymaking which wound up late at night by a tripping of the light fantastic.

A number of useful and expensive presents were presented to the happy couple; presents to the value of two hundred dollars.

The bride is a young lady well and favorably known in this community. She has a large number of friends who wish her abundant joy in her new position.

The groom is comparatively a stranger at this place. He came here early in the summer to work at his trade which is that of a machinery mechanic. He has already worked up a reputation as an excellent mechanic and with his sober and industrious habits we predict that he will be heard from later.

Mr. and Mrs. Bergren will take a trip to Lake Park to visit the groom's folks after which they will make their home at Hannaford.

The Enterprise wish these young people endless happiness.
