

The Baptist church which has been closed for several weeks so that the interior could be renovated, was reopened for public worship last Sunday, appropriate services being held both morning and evening. Rev. Myron Cooley, their state superintendent preached at both services. In the evening the sister churches of the city joined with the Baptist congregation in making it a union service and the church was filled to overflowing. At the conclusion of the regular sermon, Rev. H. P. Kispough, of the Methodist church, and Rev. H. K. Hawley, of the Congregational church, made short addresses of congratulation to the pastor and members of the Baptist church. The church has been nicely papered, the wood work grained and the interior fitted up very neatly presenting a tasty appearance. Pastor Bachelor and the members of the church are to be warmly congratulated on the good work done. Four new members were welcomed into the church at the morning service.
