

Funeral of Grace Andrus.

The funeral of Grace Pauline, third and youngest daughter of Byron Andrus, took place at the family home on East Fifth street, this morning at 9 o'clock. Rev. Edward F. Goff of the Congregational church, conducted the services. Mrs. Dr. France and Mrs. W. A. Purlington sang "Safe in the Arms of Jesus" and "Under His Wings." The floral tributes, brought by the schoolmates and friends, were numerous and very beautiful. From the remarks of the pastor we gather the following: Pauline was born February 2, 1893. She lost her mother November 16, 1900. The father became a mother to the motherless children and has tenderly cared for them. Pauline was not only the family pet, but was also greatly loved in her schools and in the neighborhood. She was a gentle and affectionate child and unusually bright.

Her last illness was not of long duration and her suffering was intense. Relief came and she, passed to her heavenly home Thursday night. The enternent took place in the family plat in Evergreen cemetery, where her body is laid beside that of her mother and who will say that she herself is not united to that loved mother in the better land.—Riverside, Cal., Press.
