

A telegram was received from Mrs. Blackwell last Saturday afternoon announcing the death of her father, Mr. W. H. Davis, at St. Clair, Mich. The deceased had been stricken with paralysis and his death had been hourly expected. He was about 73 years old.