

A Shooting at McHenry.

McHenry, N. D., Sept. 30.—Jack Ryan shot and killed William Zech, a pioneer restaurant man of this city last night. A posse is scouring the country for the murderer and is determined to capture the man at any cost. Intense excitement prevails over the killing and great indignation is felt. The people of the town feel that it is acquiring a bad reputation and there is a movement to preserve better order here at any cost.

The murderer was allowed to hang around the town two or three hours after he committed the crime and was not arrested until a day or two after the crime was committed. We understand he was found about ten miles from McHenry asleep in a straw stack and was placed under arrest.
