

Mrs. John Syverson received a telegram Sunday announcing the death of her sister, Mrs. Charles Hallock which occurred at the family residence in New York last Saturday. Mrs. Hallock had been in poor health for some time and it was necessary for her to undergo an operation some three months ago which it was hoped would restore her health. The operation helped her some but it was not a permanent cure and she has been gradually getting worse until she finally passed away as stated.