
KILLED.

Wm. Lee was killed near Dazey Sunday morning. He was working with Osher's threshing machine. They were moving the machine and Lee was on the seperator. He slipped and fell under the wheels and was instantly killed.

Deceased was a well known young man in this neighborhood. He had lived at Dazey for 6 or 7 years. He was not married.

The remains were taken to Kellog, Minn., Monday for interment.
