

MRS. J. W. BRUNS.

On Feb. 22, at her home near Binfor, occurred the death of Mrs. J. W. Bruns, mother of Mrs. Ed. Savre of this village.

She had been sick only about two weeks and was not considered to be in any danger until just before her death when she was stricken with an attack of heart failure.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Savre and other near relatives were present at her bedside and helped to soothe the last few hours before the approach of the Grim Reaper.

The funeral took place at the farm home Friday and interment took place in the German Lutheran cemetery twelve miles northwest of Cooperstown.
