SUICIDE

Brother of Dr. Nolte of Dazey Takes His Own Life
by Drinking Acid.

Dickinson, July 21.—Elmer P. Nolte, a clerk in the South Side drug store, suicided early last evening at his room in a private house by taking hydrocyanic acid. He is single, about twenty-two years of age and had been here three months, having previously worked at Carrington and Williston.

He left a note for his brothers, Dr. Nolte of Dazey, and Jeweler Nolte of Dexter, Iowa, also a sister, saying that he had no particular reason for ending his life.

His parents are dead.

The coroner is awaiting instructions from his brothers.
