

A very sad accident happened last Tuesday at the home of Louis Trostad in Pilot Mound. Josephine, a four years old child, was playing by a wood-pile when the pile fell over on the little girl and killed her. The remains were interred at the Ottawa church Thursday, Rev. J. M. Jenson of Cooperstown officiating. The loss of this bright little girl is certainly a hard blow to the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Trostad.