

J. H. Hill and Mrs. J. C. Morse were quietly married at the home of E. W. Blackwell on Wednesday of last week. Judge Will H. Carleton donned his clawhammer coat and tied the knot in the most improved manner. The Courier joins with many friends of the contracting parties in extending congratulations.